

<http://www.bioethicscaribe.org/>

The Bioethics Society of the English-speaking Caribbean (BSEC) Welcomes You to its 2013 Annual Forum

BIOETHICS IN THE CARIBBEAN
Saturday 16th November, 2013
9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.
Bourne Hall, St. George's University,
True Blue Campus, Grenada

Distinguished speakers from Jamaica, Trinidad, Grenada, and the USA will address topics ranging from high tech medicine to corporal punishment, regional impacts of climate change, and clinical ethics. The Forum will be of interest to anyone working in or studying human or animal medicine, law, pharmacy, nursing, public or community health, bioethics, or health policy. It is co-sponsored by SGU's Bioethics Dept and the Caribbean College of Family Practitioners.

Pre-Registration is required to obtain lunch or CME credit. To Pre-Register: email kwilliams@sgu.edu by noon Mon 4th November.
Cash payment is due at the Forum by 9:30 am. Please bring exact payment in US$ or ECS (US$10=EC$27). No change will be provided.

US$10 includes registration and lunch for current BSEC members

US$20 includes registration and lunch for non-members

US$30 includes registration, lunch, and BSEC membership through Dec 2014

US$20 for 5 CME credits from CCFP

FREE registration and lunch for students who have Pre-Registered

Accommodation at True Blue Bay Resort (US$162.00/night includes tax and breakfast). Email tshabazz@sgu.edu by November 4, 2013 to confirm your room.